YOUTH, NUN FOUND GUILTY IN OBREGON DEATH

Young Slayer Must Die; Nun Sent To Prison

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—Jose de Leon Toral, assassin of President-elect Obregon, and Mother Superior Maria Concepcion, accused of complicity, were found guilty by a jury in San Angel court tonight.

Toral was sentenced to death and Mother Concepcion was given 20 years in prison. Both sentences were the maximum permitted by law.

The case was given to the jury at 5:10 p. m.

The final plea of Demetrio Sodi, chief defense counsel was in reply to charges of Federal Prosecutor Ezequiel Padilla, that the assassination had not been a political crime.

When Sodi attempted to cite further precedents to prove that Toral had been prompted by political motives, the spectators began taunting the defense attorney. Their cries became louder and louder until Sodi was forced to halt his argument.

Appeal to Court

The attorney appealed to the court, stating that he had been deprived of the liberty of speech, but the statement was rejected.

Toral then took the stand and said:

I expect nothing but death, but I hope when I am dead people will forget hatreds.

Under the eyes of 250 heavily armed guards and spurred by the shouts of the approving crowd, Padilla attacked the defense claim.

17 KILLED IN FACTORY BLAST

LYNN, Mass., Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—Live ashes thoughtlessly flickered from a cigar or cigarette in a workman's hand, appeared tonight the most logical explanation of a terrific chemical-celluloid explosion which today snuffed out the lives of at least 17 persons.

The charred or battered bodies of 17 victims—a mother and her five children and 11 workmen—had been recovered from the smoldering ruins of the Preble Box Toe company's plant, scene of the tragic blast.

Early tonight firemen, police and volunteers were still searching the rain-soaked twisted wreckage for one other reported missing and feared to be buried in the ruins.

Three of six persons in the Lynn hospital were believed dying. Three others, severely hurt, also were under treatment there. Many of the victims had been taken to their homes after receiving first aid treatment.

The Harry Blaney family's home adjoining the factory was destroyed. Mrs. Blaney and five of her children were fatally burned. Blaney himself was among those reported dying and two other children were painfully burned.

The remaining two children of the family escaped injury only because they were going out the rear door of their home, enroute to school, when the blast occurred.

The explosion lifted the roof from the one-story building and threw an avalanche of flame against the neighboring tenement houses, several of which caught fire.

Several employees, who were buried beneath the wreckage, ran from the buildings with their clothing in flames, to collapse outside the building.

PROSPERITY SHOWN BY TAXES

Indicative of the prosperity of Richmond, tax collections for the month of October show large increase over former years, according to the figures of J. O. Ford, city assessor. Collections for the month of October were in excess of $40,000.

Returns since Nov. 3 show the same increase over last year, Ford stated. With Dec. 3 as the last day on which returns can be made before taxes become delinquent, there is every indication that property owners are not waiting until the last few days to pay taxes.

Returns for October last year were approximately $28,000, according to Ford. Better business conditions as compared with last year are credited with the increase of tax collections for this year.

Construction Of Span To Start In Near Future

MARTINEZ, Nov. 8.—Better transportation from Richmond to the Marin shore moved one step nearer yesterday when the county board of supervisors announced that it would grant a permit to the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, Inc. The announcement followed the conclusion of testimony after which the needs for the span were set forth before an adjourned meeting of the supervisors.

Application for the franchise was made by Oscar Klatt, president of the bridge company. The proposed bridge, plans for which have been completed, will cost $12,500,000 instead of $10,000,000 as previously announced, according to Charles Derleth, dean of the engineering department of the University of California and engineer of the bridge project.

The terms of the franchise will specify payment to the county of two percent of the gross receipts, payment to start ten years after the completion of the bridge.

Klatt declared the backers of the span are ready to begin construction within 90 days of the granting of the franchise by the war department from which a permit will be requested immediately.

Written consent of the Richmond-San Rafael Ferry company, until recently a rival of the Richmond-San Rafael Bridge, Inc., was filed with the supervisors by Henry Jacobs, attorney for the ferry company.

Town Engulfed By Hot Lava Stream

CATANIA, Sicily, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—A fiery red river, extending from a gaping crater in Mount Etna down the fertile mountainside and through the ruins of valley towns, moved steadily toward the sea tonight at a point near the coastal town of Catara.

Two great molten lava streams which have left a wide path of desolation and ruin in the once beautiful and rich countryside, were joining near the coastline as the eruption continued unslackened.

An aged peasant and his wife were the first casualties reported. They died near Mascali, which was obliterated.

It was believed by authorities here that the lava streams would reach the sea Saturday.

There were 12,000 homeless in public buildings at Giarre and nearby towns tonight. Besides the town of Mascali, hundreds of homes and untold acres of rich vineyards and farm lands had been destroyed.

PROGRAM FOR DEDICATION OF FOUNTAIN ANNOUNCED

The Armistice Day program for the dedicatory ceremonies of the memorial fountain erected by the Richmond chapter of War Mothers in Memorial park was announced yesterday by John A. Miller, chairman of the park commission.

Bowen, Richmond veteran, will unveil the shaft. Presentation to the city will be made by Mrs. Cora B. Cox, state president, and acceptance on the part of the city will be made by Mayor Mattie A. Chandler.

STATE RESULT ON MEASURES

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—Legalized boxing in California as it has been conducted in the past four years has gained a record approval from voters in the state.

The proposal providing bonds for the Olympic games carried. Residents of the state decided to reapportion the legislature.

Figures on the tax amendment showed that it was assured of a place on the statutes.

The amendment to prohibit rodeos has lost. Other amendments apparently beaten were those on the gaming of a board of education; mutual water corporation stock and grade separation bonds while the remaining 13 had seemingly carried by wide margins.

Two Youths Killed In Plane Accident

SAN DIEGO, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—Two 18 year old high school boys were killed here today when Leonard O'Keefe was thrown out of the plane he was piloting over San Diego bay and the ship crashed into the water carrying Marvin Borland.

O'Keefe was believed to have forgotten to fasten his safety belt before attempting to stunt the plane. Even had Borland been capable of piloting the ship, he could not have done so because there were no controls in his cockpit.

O'Keefe, who had just received his pilot's license, decided to play "hokey" from school today and invited his fellow student to go with him.

Borland was to have been married Saturday to Miss Eileen Campbell, a classmate.

Richmond Kiwanis Club Elects Heads

Clare Horner, Richmond attorney, was elected president of the Richmond Kiwanis club at elections held during the luncheon in the Hotel Carquest. Other officers chosen to head the organization are Homer Patterson, vice-president; William Poole, treasurer; Theo Madison, district trustee and directors, Harry Botger, George Lee, Ralph Kelly, Earl Gray, Charles Brombacher, Ralph Bergen and Lee Wharton.

Ralph Bergen, Theo Hudson and Rex Loucks left yesterday for California-Nevada district convention in Sacramento. Delegates from the 123 Kiwanis clubs in the district are attending the sessions which opened yesterday and will close tomorrow.

The new officers of the club will take office in January.

CONDITIONS IN MEXICO TOLD

Deaths caused by bandits in Mexico in one year wouldn't reach the total of murders in Chicago for eight months. This is what Dr. Stanley Hunter, pastor of St. John's Presbyterian church of Berkeley told the Richmond Church Fellowship club last night.

A traveler going into Mexico is struck by the number of soldiers on board the train on the lookout for bandits. But as one goes further inland, the sight loses all of its thrills and becomes an everyday matter, Dr. Hunter declared.

Mexico has three "national sports"—playing the lottery, watching a bull fight and drinking pulque, a strong drink made from the juice of the century plant, Dr. Hunter said. The bull fight is one of the biggest sporting events in the country. Lottery tickets are sold openly every day by newsboys and men while the pulque is shipped to the cities every day in big tank cars.

Lindbergh is almost the patron saint of Mexico. His name is on every public vehicle and his pictures adorn school books and papers. Lindbergh is the national hero of Mexico. The Roman Catholic church owned about two thirds of all property in Mexico. Since the present political force has been in power the church has lost much of its lands, he asserted.

GENERAL MOTORS DIRECTORS DIVIDE $100,000,000 MELON

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—General Motors corporation today delivered to stock holders the surprise which its president, Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., had predicted a short time ago.

The surprise was in the form of a melon worth $43,500,000 in cash and stock which should be worth an additional $43,500,000 in dividends annually, making an actual distribution valued at around $100,000,000 if increase in value is taken into consideration.

Directors ordered a split in the 17,400,000 shares on the basis of two and one half new shares for each present share held, and indicated that the new stock would be placed on a $3 annual basis which would be equal to $7.50 on the present stock which pays $5 annually.

In addition a cash extra dividend of $2.50 a share was declared on common stock. The latter alone would amount to $43,500,000. Figuring the increase dividend on the basis of the old capitalization, the other $43,500,000 is arrived at. On today's price basis the new stock would sell around $58 a share, but Wall street is convinced the new issue will rise quickly above $100, thus adding a tremendous amount to the melon.

Woman Murders Man On Liner

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—While hundreds of visitors were passing through the giant liner Malolo at Municipal terminal No. 1 today, an unidentified woman shot and fatally wounded Gilbert J. Pinto, chief Steward Yeoman, in the vessel's dining room.

Mortally wounded, Pinto managed to make his way to the sea deck and after gangway, where he died in the arms of H. van Hedlin, junior second assistant engineer.

Meanwhile, in the dining room, a double tragedy had been prevented when the woman was disarmed before she could end her own life.

Must Rolling Along On Election Wager

MARTINEZ, Nov. 8.—Oh, hum—bet. After election bet.

Shelby was a vigorous supporter of the presidential aspirations of one Gov. Al Smith, while Horace Greve supported Barry Hoover. Both were willing to bet their last shirt on a vote. Finally they decided on a bet.

As a result, Shelby will transport Greve, by wheelbarrow from the county courthouse to the county garage in Fairview. There will be no little labor attached to the bet as part of the road to the garage is rough and rocky and Greve is no lightweight.

Arkansas Voters Pass 'Monkey Bill'

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—The "Monkey Bill" passed by referendum in Tuesday's election, prohibiting the teaching of the theory of evolution in public schools, will cause a revision of the text books of Arkansas, its leader said today.

Old biology, zoology, genealogy and psychology books, making any reference to ape or other animal ancestry, will be barred from further use in schools of the state under the new law. Expense of providing new text books in these subjects will take several thousands of dollars from the state treasury.

County Shatters All Vote Records

MARTINEZ, Nov. 8.—A new record for voting in this county was recorded Tuesday, according to County Clerk J. H. Wells. Ninety percent of Contra Costa county's more than 27,500 registered voters went to the polls and cast their votes.

Definite figures on the vote percentage will not be available until the supervisors finish the canvass of election returns which is to start Tuesday. A considerable number of election officials failed to tally the total of precinct votes which cannot be learned until returns are opened.

Clothiers To Play San Pablo Sunday

Bill Jones' Johnson's Clothiers tangle with the City of San Pablo ball team Sunday afternoon in the first street ball park, according to an announcement made yesterday.

The Clothiers have had hard luck the past few Sundays and have been drubbed twice. The last time the Guarantee Shoes or Oakland walloped them 12 to 0.

The Clothiers are now in third place with two wins and two defeats while San Pablo is at the bottom of the list with three defeats and one win. If San Pablo defeats the Clothiers Sunday, the two teams will be tied for second place.

The lineup for the Clothiers will include Woodson, catcher; Roberts or Jones, pitchers; Gordon, Garritty, Krasovich, Starsplich, Infield; Goddier, Leveque, Eligs outfield.

Flood Tide Ballot Of Hoover Growing

NEW YORK, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—The flood tide which swept Herbert Hoover on to victory Tuesday continued to grow today as belated returns arrived. His plurality surpassed the 6,000,000 mark on practically complete returns, and his electoral vote was 444 to Smith's meager 87.

Hoover's total popular vote this afternoon was 20,015,475 and Smith's 14,000,130.

are in one Mexican city over 365 churches.

The law in Mexico, that has caused so much discussion in the United States and Europe, Dr. Hunter explained, bans foreign priests from holding services in Mexico. Only Mexican priests may hold services. As a result "religion is bogged down," he declared. Services are held in a quiet part of the church, away from the eyes of the law and after the services are over the congregation sneaks away hoping that the police will not see them leaving the church.

The assassination of Obregon occurred during Dr. Hunter's visit. He declares that fear was expressed in many quarters that the slayings might become national and a revolution result.

Large land holdings were discussed. Land is almost given away by the government and is sold at about one cent an acre. American money. Several American have large land holdings in that country, especially William Randolph Hearst, the publisher, who owns 7,000,000 acres of land.

These large estates are being gradually broken up and parts given to the peons. The peons are doing the best to improve their properties and to make a home for themselves.

The speaker was introduced by Rev. Alden Pratt of the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Pratt met Dr. Hunter in New York.

C. C. Kratzer presided over the business session of the group. The program was opened with a song by Mrs. Rihn; invocation by Rev. C. G. Lindemann; musical numbers by Archie McVickers and Harry Axelson; accordion numbers by Modesto Regalain; talks by Rev. R. W. Wilson, of Community Methodist church, El Centro and songs by Dixie and Patsy Marsh of Radio KPO.

STARS ADD ZEST TO COMEDY OF FILM

"Show People" a film of life in the movies, made by Mervyn Goldwyn Mayer, which opens at the California today, has one scene in which Marion Davies and William Haines, co-stars of the piece are helped out by William S. Hart, Douglas Fairbanks, Norma Talmadge, John Gilbert, Mae Murray, Rod La Rocque, Renee Adoree, Leatrice Joy, George K. Arthur, Karl Dane, Aileen Pringle, Claire Windsor, Estelle Taylor, Dorothy Sebastian and Polly Moran.

There is another sequence in which Charlie Chaplin does his bit in making realistic fun of the inner circles of the film industry. Lew Cody and Elinor Glyn are also among the atmosphere players.

In her role as an actress in the movies Miss Davies watches John Gilbert and her real self arrive at the studio for work. King Vidor, who directed, also is shown directing a film within a film.

Why other well known players were not included in the crowd scenes was not stated officially. It may be because they didn't need the extra's daily wage of $7.50 which Fairbanks, Chaplin and the rest collected for their labor.

All the stars named were perfectly willing to give their services for friendship's sake but there was some rule governing actors' pay that made it necessary for them to take their wages for doing their jobs.

In the picture, Miss Davies, as "Peggy Pepper" a southern girl, got her start in the movies with the aid of William Haines, as "Billy Boone," in an old-time, pie tossing, seltzer squirting comedy. Miss Davies dodged the pie but caught her share of the seltzer.

The picture then shows Miss Davies translated from the comedies to feature pictures, where as the star she became almost in-eufferable superior. She turns down "Billy Boone" until he finds a comedy method of restoring her equilibrium.

Miss Davies said she was portraying a composite of several stars she has known personally

THE MIGHTY

Chapter VII.
FLAMING HATE

Mary uttered a cry of horror. "No, Tarzan, No!"

No one but Mary could have stayed his hand. Tarzan desisted and turned away just in time to meet an onslaught of fanatical natives with long spears. He grasped the foremost as Mary flung her body between the attacker and Bobby. Catching his spear, Tarzan broke the spear blade from its shaft.

The echo of his call had hardly died before there came an answering roar from the lion.

"Numa!" cried the panic-stricken natives. "He comes to aid his friend, Tarzan!"

The last of the natives had fled and Black John was struggling in his haste to rise when Mary ran to Tarzan. "Quick!" he pleaded, "Before they return."

Tarzan smiled, reached down, swung Bobby to his shoulders then with his free arm about her he hurried the girl into the jungle.

Again Tarzan sought refuge in the lonely hut in the heart of the jungle. This time he had a purpose.

Tarzan did not have to know the word mystery or what it meant. His very actions now indicated that he was scheming. He had waited on one side of the hut while he dug until he had upturned a stone with which the floor was paved. He reached down, took something out of the hole under the stone, then as he rose he heaved a small rusty steel box to Mary.

"Long ago," he explained, "I was found here by Taka of the Ape People. Taka cared for me. And so I grew. One day when I was playing on the floor I dug up this box."

Mary opened the box. From it she took carefully a paper yellow with age. Almost the first thing her eyes fell on was the name, Earl Greystone.

"Why, Tarzan," exclaimed Mary, "this explains it all—about you—this is written by Earl Greystone, your father."

Puzzled, Tarzan did not understand. He had taken the paper from Mary's hand when he interrupted her with child-like directness, teaching over for the photograph of the General.

"Earl Greystone—God! Bigger than Tarzan!"

Mary studied both the photograph and the papers he had showed her. "No, Tarzan," she repeated patiently, "Lord Greystone is not God. But these papers prove you his son and heir."

The jungle man seemed be-

MALIK FURRER CAGERS IN VICTORIES

The second games in the Richmond basketball league got under way last night at the Roosevelt Junior High school gym before a packed house.

In the first game of the evening the Master Craft Roofers made their debut in local basketball circles. From all appearances of the score, this debut was not so hot. When the battle ended, the Furrers' quietest stood on the top of the score which happened to be just 46 to 4.

In the second game of the night Ben Malik's cagers, formerly the "Stringer" outfit, bowed gracefully to the Santa Fe outfit and took the game, 28 to 20. The Santa Fe outfit fought hard, but finally went under in the last stanza. In the last half the Malik team took 12 points over the Santa Fe's six to win the victory.

In the first game Spikes was high man for the Furrers outfit with 13 points while Melin followed a close second with 12 points.

Rowdy Dyer was high man for the Malik team. He smashed through with 12 points while Tuta was high man for the losers with nine points.

Clare Horner To Referee Football Game At Berkeley

Clare D. Horner will referee the California "goof" Stanford "gray" football game which precedes the annual "little big game" between the fresh teams of California and Stanford in Memorial stadium tomorrow.

The game is unique as the teams are used to try out plays on by their own first string fresh teams, while the "goofs" and the "grays" never learn the plays of their own varsity teams.

Today, Horner will referee the Berkeley-Centerville game in Berkeley.

in his presence. It was different from defying him when he was absent and they were safe in the village. "Tarzan is more mighty than your magic," altered one doubter.

Black John sneered. "My magic is more mighty than Tarzan's! Surround the hut, before I strike you dead!" Black John was an opportunist. His eye happened to catch gathering clouds on the horizon.

"Why, even the storm gods obey my magic!" he shouted.

Mary was having more trouble than ever to restrain Tarzan from flaming by the insolence of Black John in even thinking he might cross the will of Tarzan. "I am Tarzan," he thundered. "No one can take you from me!"

With devilish ingenuity Black John was setting fire to a bunch of dried grass tied to the head of a spear. As it burst into flame he cast it through the air like a wide-flaming meteor until it struck in the thatch of the roof of the cabin scattering far and wide a shower of sparks.

It was only a few moments before the thatch was a flaming mass spreading fast in the rising wind.

Mary snatched up the precious papers Tarzan had showed her and thrust them in her bosom.

The hut was almost entirely in flames as Tarzan, Mary and Bobby respectively fought the strife.

Flames of smoke were licking up the hut as Tarzan, Mary and Bobby hungrily beheld them as Tarzan burst open the door. The moment he did so a veritable rain of spears alighted at the hapless three. Tarzan took Mary in his arms. There was no going back. Ahead was the tribe now worked into a state of fanatic fury.

Chapter VIII
MOCK MARRIAGE

As a witch doctor Black John had been just a little bit too efficient. That is, he had claimed too much and too soon. The very rain clouds which he had pointed to as obeying his will had headed up all too quickly into a veritable cloud burst and in the downpour the fire in the hut was stayed and quenched with a quickness that was so impossible to the superstitious natives huddled back from the fury of the storm that they murmured openly among themselves.

The medicine of the Witch Doctor is powerless against the Rain God, as he said.

Mary was quick to catch the murmuring among the natives. With elation she pointed it out to her hero, Tarzan. Not was Tarzan loathe to take advantage of the turn of events. He seized up a club, dashed at them and they broke into a retreat that was soon a panic and utter rout as he belittled his jungle cry at them.

Even Bobby, boy-like, was seized with the lust for battle. He loosened a spear from the wall where it had stuck and slipping past Mary's ineffectual attempt to stop him, charged lustily after the fleeing natives also.

Black John was a cool renegade, crafty, never with his eye off the main chance. Roused though his followers were and inwardly panic-stricken he did not miss seeing that with Tarzan in temperate pursuit and Bobby running after him Mary was at least for the moment safe.

He doubled on his tracks, crept back of the hut and along the outer wall. Turning back to the hut Mary struck in sudden fear and tried to run. It was too late. Black John made a quick leap, caught her by the wrist while with his other hand he covered her mouth to prevent a repetition of her outcry.

40%...50%...60% GASOLINE in your oil!

Not when you buy the oil—there's no gasoline in it then. But if you use "wet" gasoline it soon dilutes your lubricant.

"Wet" gasoline doesn't vaporize completely—it can't burn cleanly—and much of it runs down the cylinder walls into the crankcase. Naturally your oil is soon ruined—its "body" is gone—it is too thin to lubricate your motor properly. Besides, you've wasted fuel—cheated yourself of the extra miles your gasoline should have given you.

Would you avoid this condition? It is easily done. Simply be careful to buy "dry" gas. There is a "dry" gas now—Shell 400.

Careful refining eliminates heavy "wet" fractions, and all of your Shell 400 goes into power, into mileage—the things you buy gasoline for.

Yellow and red Shell pumps are everywhere convenient. Make them your stop signals whenever your tank needs filling.

THE "DRY" GAS

And about oil: There's a real now that forms no hard, flaky carbon. If you would avoid the endless troubles caused by carbon, and "add thousands of miles to the life of your car," insist on SHELL MOTOR OIL whenever you buy

A thousand miles of ordinary driving with "wet" gasoline and your oil is likely diluted more than half—thinned beyond use as a lubricant. Note this example of old crankcase oil—54% gasoline!

A thousand miles with "dry" gas and there is very little crankcase dilution—here are the results of a typical test: Gasoline 9.2%, lubricant 90.8%—a decided fuel and oil saving over "wet" gas.

Are you SURE your rugs are clean

Week after week you go through a round of rug cleaning. When you are through, have you really cleaned?
You would be surprised if you could see inside your rug after the ordinary cleaning. While its surface is comparatively free from dirt, there is deep in the nap a thick layer of grit which hasn't even been touched!

Are you satisfied with that kind of cleanliness? Are you content with such half-way results when with The Hoover you can have floor coverings that are really clean—all the way through?

"Positive Agitation" gets the dirt that no ordinary cleaning method can touch. It flutters to the surface of the rug the sharp, cutting particles lodged at the base of the nap. And only when these are removed is a rug thoroughly clean.

It would be well worth your while to take time for a demonstration of "Positive Agitation" on your rugs.
You would see this sensational cleaning principle remove more dirt per minute than any other cleaning method is able to remove. And you would know definitely that nothing but Hoover cleanliness would content you in the future!

EASTBAY PLAN GROUP MEET WEDNESDAY

Contra Costa county residents will be interested in the next regular meeting of the Eastbay Regional Plan association, which will be held next Wednesday at 8 p. m. in Room 101, Hotel Oakland. The subject for general discussion will be "Tunnels and Tubes and What Follows After." Reports of progress will be made and plans for the future talked over in detail. Prominent speakers from Alameda and Contra Costa counties will address the meeting and the discussion will be open to everyone present.

At the October meeting of the Plan association the board of directors was increased from 25 to 60 in order to give the fullest possible representation to the back country. President Fred E. Reed says: "The purpose of the organization is to make the Eastbay district as fine as intelligent thought and careful planning can make it. We want to cut down the distance from Alameda to Contra Costa county by boring tunnels through the hills and taking the abrupt curves out of the highways. We want to park the boulevards leading to the outside sections so that our residents of the congested districts in our cities can find freedom and happiness in motoring out into the country and back. We want to remove any billboards that are unsightly, and replace them with park-like strips along our main thoroughfares. We want to acquire park lands where some of our beauty spots now exist and thus make it possible for all time that our people can picnic and play, and build up sound bodies and strong minds."

"This cannot be done if we limit our attention to the cities alone. We must make our back country as fine as can possibly be. This is the purpose of the Eastbay Regional Plan association. It isn't an Oakland institution but is exactly what its name implies—a planning organization that will give its attention to the problems of all of the cities and towns of Alameda and Contra Costa counties. It was this purpose which prompted our association to increase its directorate from 25 to 60 at the October meeting. New

DECLINING TONNAGE

Those of us who are interested in the future of the American Merchant Marine—and every good citizen is interested whether he realizes it or not—will do well to glance over these figures showing what the leading maritime nations of the world have done in the way of constructing new merchant ships from 1921 on until 1926. The tonnage includes all vessels for transoceanic service of 4,000 tons burden or more and bring to light the following facts:

Great Britain, during the five-year period built 600 vessels totaling 3,500,000 gross tons.
Germany built 172 vessels totaling 650,000,000 gross tons.

Italy built 83 vessels totaling 506,000 gross tons.
France built 72 vessels totaling 450,000 gross tons.

Japan built 52 vessels totaling 250,000 gross tons.

Now listen to this—The United States constructed 14 vessels totaling 137,000 gross tons.

The figures are not at all reassuring to those who believe that Uncle Sam, in order to assure prosperity in time of peace and national safety in time of war, should have a merchant marine second to none.

Here are some more facts which are not so good: In 1923 the United States had in foreign trade including privately owned and shipping board vessels, tonnage in the amount of 10,620,717 tons. At the end of the fiscal year this year, the amount of the tonnage including the privately owned and shipping board vessels had shrunk to a little more than 6,000,000 tons.

In other words during the period of six years our shipping in the foreign trade has declined about forty per cent, and it must be remembered also that during all of this period we have been talking about the necessity of a merchant marine and what Uncle Sam ought to do to maintain it.

The recent session of congress passed some legislation which is designed to keep the American flag on the seas. Whether the legislation will be adequate remains to be seen, but it is to be admitted that it was the very best thing in the way of merchant marine legislation that could be obtained at the time. It is therefore up to us as American citizens to support the merchant marine in every way possible. Wherever it can be done American shippers should use American vessels for the transportation of their goods and American passengers ought to give reasonable preference to American ships when going to foreign lands. Our merchant marine is a vital necessity to the future safety of the country. Let us do everything we can there, to sustain it.

Two new biographies of presidents are called "This Man Adams" and "Meet General Grant." The smart literary gentlemen of the day should go a step farther. How about such titles as "Van, Van the President Man," "Hey Hey Hayes," and perhaps "Getting Grover's Goat?"

Berlin is the world's leader in the reptile trade, says a dispatch. That corrects the idea broadcast in a radio speech the other night that this trade had been cornered by Tammany Hall.

St. Louis people are glad the series is over with anyway. They can walk past the ball park now without having to dodge Babe Ruth's home runs.

Herr Ellenberger of Berlin, who talked for several days, set a new marathon elocution record. The show must have been for men only.

BEAUTY

Dear Miss Lane,
I have religiously followed your instructions for keeping my hair in good condition, including the hot oil shampoos, and daily brushing and yet it is falling out as badly as ever and is so dull and lifeless that I can't fix it at all. What else can I do? I'm really worried about it—Mrs. T. O.

If you are not in good physical condition that would account for the lack of response your hair has given to your treatments. Hair bustle silhouette, if it is not too extreme. I am very tall, slender, and under thirty—married and rather given to stepping out, so I always need evening clothes and like to have them varied in type. I should particularly like a snaphire line velvet or moire for dinner and theatre wear. What about the bustle, is it too extreme?

P. A. S.
A bustle sounds worse than it really is. The modern ones have out the stuffing and are bustles really by courtesy. I have found one, a Patou model, curiously enough in blue velvet and I think you will agree that it is not ultra. I cannot help seeing this model in sleek black satin, with a rather deep V and a shallow front neckline. Royal blue is ever so smart, however, and velvet—well, velvet needs no brief this season.

Yours for Style, JUDIE.

DRIVE STARTED ON HOLIDAY LIQUOR

OAKLAND, Nov. 8.—It's harder to arrest bootleggers in Oakland now, that is, according to a report filed with Chief of Police Donald Marshall today by Sgt. William Ramsey of the dry squad. Ramsey reported that there are fewer bootleggers in Oakland than there were a month ago and there are being arrested as soon as evidence can be brought against them. Ramsey and his squad are undertaking a strict enforcement here to prevent the circulation of poison liquor in this city and the surrounding districts during the Christmas season. The squad is hard at work, raiding every establishment that evidence has been brought against.

Harp Popular In Jazz Band

LONDON, Nov. 8.—(U.P.)—The harp, the world's oldest instrument, threatens to dislodge the modern saxophone from its pedestal of popularity in the London dance halls.

As a result of experiment with as many as six harps in his well-known dance band at the Savoy Hotel, Ellsbald is now using harps in the regular band. For waiters and tangoes they produce beautiful music.

Gold Plated Dials Used On Warner Radios

The drum type tuning dial on the new Stewart-Warner "Series 800" radios is gold plated, illuminated from behind and is twice calibrated. The regular dial index numbers are stamped on the surface in black, wave lengths in red.

According to V. G. Blake of the V. G. Electric company, 1314 Macdonald avenue, Stewart-Warner distributor, this is the only set in its price field with wave length calibration. Such marking demands complete tuning accuracy, which can only be obtained by absolutely precision in condensers and coils.
